B) To organize the events to rally young people from around the world.

C) To popularize the football as a means of attracting young people to sports.

4. Justification of social significance.

President of Russia Vladimir Vladimirovich Putin denoted at a meeting of the Russian Council for the Development of Physical Culture and Sports (<http://special.kremlin.ru/events/president/transcripts/60152>) : “The sphere of sports, physical culture has been and remains for us one of the priorities of social policy. I will say things that are obvious, but no less significant from this: playing sports is an opportunity for self-realization, for a new quality of life for every person. As a matter of fact, the main task of numerous international, national competitions, which in recent years we have been holding at home, in Russia, is precisely to form a culture of a healthy lifestyle. Popularization of sports is one of the important directions, and this should be served by the new TV channel “Match! Country”, created to cover sports events of all levels, including, and perhaps, and above all, in the regions of the Russian Federation. At the same time, I would like to remind you: by 2024, the goal has been set to involve more than half of Russia's population in regular sports activities - 55 percent. To do this, we, of course, need to develop mass sports much more actively, to inculcate physical culture from childhood and to cultivate a responsible attitude towards ourselves, to fully support the interest of middle and older people in sports, to create the appropriate infrastructure. Naturally, the issues of development of mass sports should be taken into account in the framework of our national projects - and all of them are built around the interests and needs of man”.

The First Eurasian Club Football Tournament is fully complies with the goals, announced by President of Russia Vladimir Vladimirovich Putin and the requests of Russian youth. Herewith the tournament popularizes not only football, but also it is developing the cultural and patriotic education and preservation of historical heritage among our fellow citizens, children and youth. The First Eurasian Club Football Tournament allows to promote the own open and friendly image among the foreign youth for Russia and Moscow, allows to bring up the foreign youth with the our culture and traditional values, allows to outline the openness of Russia and striving for communication with partners from other countries, what leads to positive effect in the foreign policy situation. Active sports young people from all over the world will have the opportunity to experience the hospitality and benevolence of Moscow residents on their own experience.
